Librarian's Report

June 20, 2014

One light bulb out.

Trash and recycling can be taken to dump.

Cady Day was a success. 38 people. Great to see inside the mausoleum. Folks asked about going inside for next year.

The library is offering a pass for many Vermont state parks, good for free entry into designated park day-areas for up to eight people in one vehicle. The pass can be checked out for two days and is good at Ascutney, Camp Plymouth, Wilgus, Silver Lake, and Thetford Hill state parks, among others. We've got a similar pass for half a dozen Vermont historical sites, including Bennington Battle Monument, the Eureka Schoolhouse in Springfield, the Old Constitution House in Windsor, and the Calvin Coolidge Birthplace at Plymouth Notch. The passes are good until the parks and historic sites close for the season; those dates vary according to the rules of the individual park or site.

Perhaps Tom could include the above in his column next week.

Book Sale:

- 1) The book sale will take place Friday, July 4, from 10 a.m. to Noon. Tom can include book sale information in his column.
- 2) I will need a dolly truck, a long folding table and a picnic table. I need help setting up the books from 9:30 to 10 and I need help taking down the books and tables from 12 to 12:30. I can run the booksale from 10-12 myself.
- 3) Perhaps, as he did last year, Tom can sub for me during library hours or I can close early a couple of days so I won't have to get paid extra for the 4 hours of time I will put in getting change for the book sale, setting up and running the book sale, putting things away after the book sale, and making a dump run.
